

FEATURES OF THE NEW CANTALICIAN WESTERN NEW YORK ACADEMIC CAMPUS

- Two-story fully ADA Compliant facility with elevator to ensure all students access to all areas
- Classrooms designed to accommodate wheelchairs, standing boards, and other equipment
- Technology Program with dedicated classroom center with media and broadcasting capabilities
- Creative Arts Program with dedicated instruction and studio space
- Music and Performing Arts Program with adaptive instrument technology
- Sensory Therapy and Calming Rooms
- Library Center designed for students with resource materials for parents and staff
- Specialty Clinic Areas for Physical and Occupational Therapy
- Speech Clinic Areas with individual speech rooms and centralized group areas
- Padaptive Physical Education program featuring Adapted Fitness Room, large gym enhanced by two baseball diamonds, football/soccer fields, field house, and additional open green space
- Fully enclosed outdoor courtyard for lunch, educational, and play opportunities
- School Store and Vocational training space for Life Skills programs
- Performing Arts Stage with an elevator allowing for full student participation
- Off main road bus drop off and pickup areas with separate entries for younger and older students
- Location in a safe and walk able neighborhood surrounding the 15 acre campus
- Vibrant business community allowing for integration programs and vocational training opportunities.

Exceptional People, No Exceptions

Cantalician Center for Learning ■ 3233 Main Street, Buffalo, New York 14214 ■ 716.833.5353

CantalicianCenter.org